Enjoy the Most Mediterranean Experience on Board

Every day we seek to ensure that our guests feel like they are in the Mediterranean, which is why we promote those products that help us to create a Mediterranean atmosphere.

Pullmantur is the leading cruise line within the Spanish market and, for this reason, we only rely on leading brands that enable us to guarantee that all the products and services we offer on board reflect the qualities that characterise our appeal: quality and excellence.

In the best setting possible: on board our Pullmantur cruises, we sail further in order to offer our guests all the unmistakeable flavours, aromas and sensations of a unique experience, one they can share with those they care about the most.

TelepizzaOur Secret's in the Dough.

Telepizza, the largest non-American pizza home-delivery company in terms of number of outlets, plies the seas alongside Pullmantur, helping you to feel right at home when you savour a telepizza as you enjoy your holiday on the high seas. Furthermore, on our Cruise Ships Monarch, Sovereign and Horizon, you can enjoy your pizzas in a series of specially-created areas that recall the hundreds of outlets that this catering chain owns.

Alhambra Tapas Bar

We know what you like ...

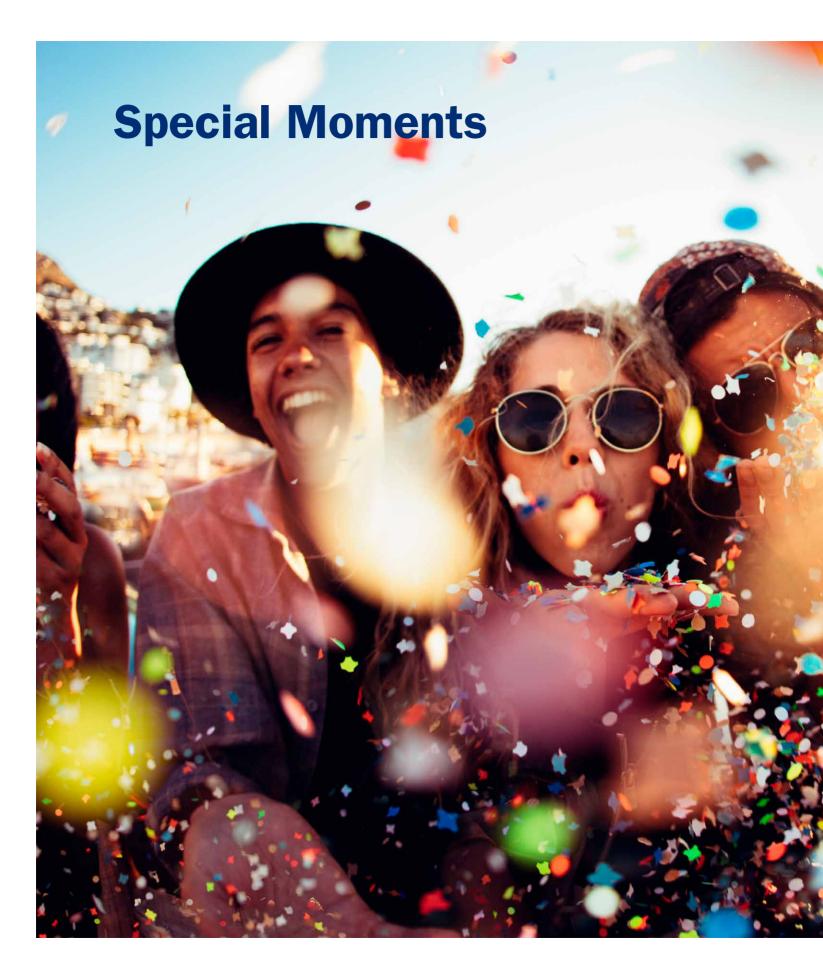

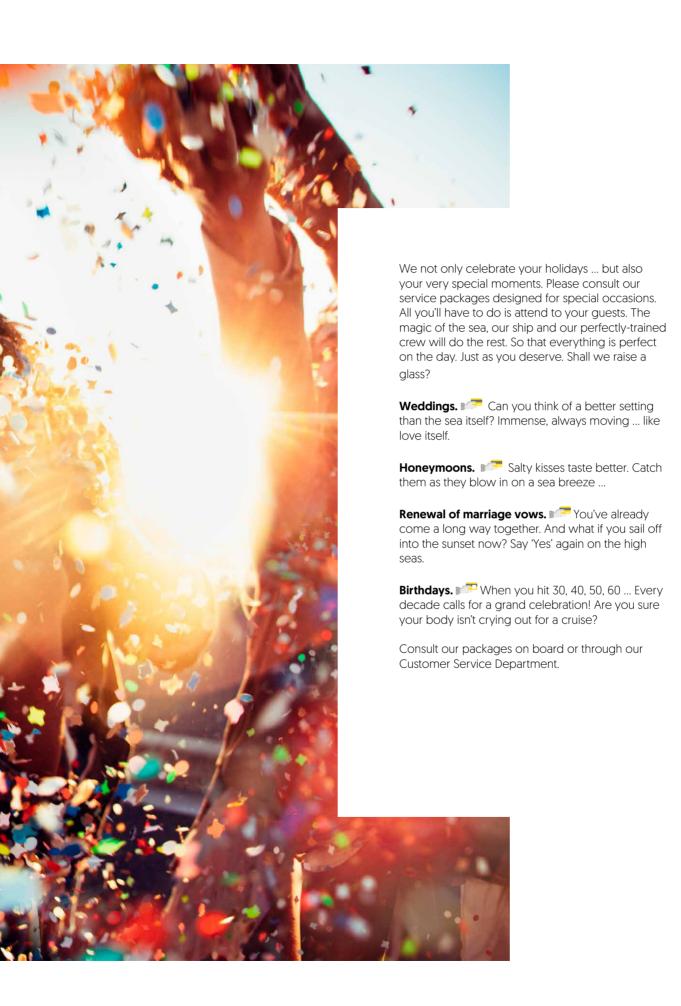

Freixenet

Welcomes you on board

Most of us enjoy a refreshing drink, especially in a relaxed environment with our friends. For this reason, we have created a Freixenet ICE Area on our ships Horizon and Sovereign, where you can enjoy this new sparkling wine, which combines the grape varieties used in the creation of the classic Cordón Negro with a touch of Chardonnay in order to achieve a more intense wine that balances the chill of ice.

Our Seas

Atlantic Ocean.

The Canary Islands always holds many surprises in store. Despite their small size, the islands offer a wide range of ecosystems that make this trip quite unique. Unique and also memorable, because many of their spectacular landscapes stay in the traveller's memory forever. Volcanic forces have gradually moulded a series of beautiful landmasses replete with craters, peaks, lava flows, fertile valleys, beaches bordered with dunes, ancient forests, natural swimming-pools and bays that offer tranquil waters. A diverse environment where a number of colonial towns and a culture rich in influences await, not to mention all the joy of the local inhabitants and a climate that many consider to be the best in the world.

Caribbean Sea.

The Spanish, British, French and Dutch all bequeathed their hybrid influences to this beautiful corner of the world, a veritable paradise on Earth. This region is rich in picturesque settings, which are not that difficult to reach, but may be hard to leave. You'll discover it all if you join one of our cruises through the Caribbean. So let the region seduce you with its colourful colonial architecture, its endless heavenly beaches dotted with coconut trees, its exuberant untouched forests, some of the most beautiful reefs in the world and all the joy typical of the Caribbean. Don't resist! Paradises are there to lead you to temptation ...

Mediterranean Seas.

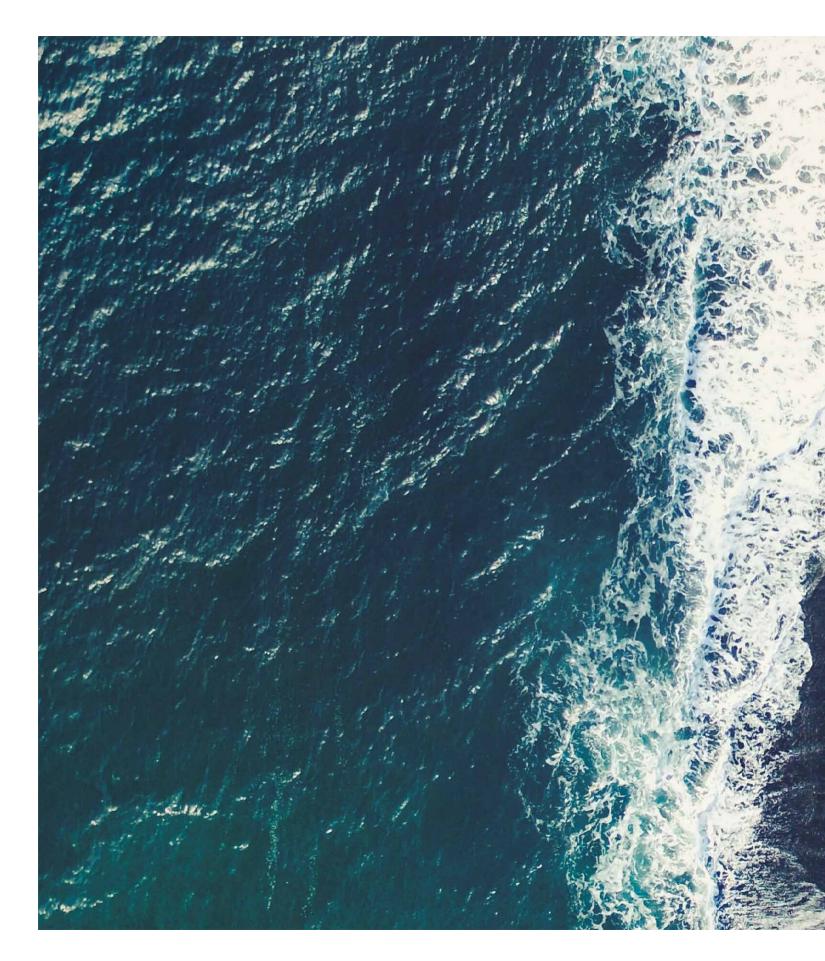

The Mediterranean Sea. A unique sea that deserves to be toured first. The sea that has always nourished us with its ancient furrows festooned with waves and surf. In some of its hidden corners it changes its name, but its essence remains the same. The Aegean Sea and Adriatic harbour the same heritage that makes the Mediterranean the wisest of all seas. Venice, Rome, Florence, Nice, Dubrovnik, Athens, Santorini, Malta, Mykonos, Naples, Monaco ... Come on board and discover the beautiful jewels that await throughout the Mediterranean Sea!

Tour the Norwegian fjords and bring home memories of their extraordinary beauty that will last forever. Stroll through St. Petersburg, the city of the tsars, or discover the green spirit of Stockholm. You'll disembark on islands of wild beauty, ply the waves of the Arctic Ocean and breathe in the crystalline air of the North Cape, where Pullmantur Cruises will introduce you to the northernmost village in the world. Canary Islands and Agadir

on board Ship Horizon

All the diverse beauty that makes the Canary Islands truly unique is brought together in this 7-night cruise, which departs from Gran Canaria or Tenerife and heads off for La Palma, Lanzarote, Fuerteventura and the Moroccan city of Agadir. The dominant flavour of this sea crossing is set by the Islands' volcanic landscape, which has been moulded for centuries by the wind and the water. You'll see dolphins. You can climb El Teide or visit Loro Parque, the most popular zoo in Spain. Or why not go trekking in the National Park of Timanfaya, discover the coast of Gran Canaria in a kayak or stroll through leafy forests of wild laurel. You'll also have an opportunity to explore exotic Marrakech, the "Red City" of Morocco.

The Mediterranean changes its name in the open seas between the Italian coast and the Balkan Peninsula. This is the Adriatic Sea, whose shores harbour destinations as romantic as Venice and Dubrovnik, not to mention countless stunning untouched coves and Medieval cities. On this 7-night cruise departing from Athens or Trieste you will be able to spend more time in Venice and other destinations than on other cruises. You can also swim in the crystal-clear waters off the beaches of Corfu and stroll through Budva and Kotor, two of the jewels of Montenegro. Or why not follow the Game of Thrones route in Dubrovnik, go trekking in the Paklenica National Park, fall in love with Venice on a gondola tour, escape from Trieste to Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia, or savour the delicacies of Croatian cuisine at an exclusive destination that we alone visit:

Travel often provides us with the ideal excuse to embark on other paths: inner journeys. Movement as an end and not only a means. Which is why some guests prefer our special cruises, where the most important thing is the trip itself, not the destination. And this is probably the most authentic cruise experience of all, a trip in which there is virtually nothing to distract the passenger from enjoying everything the ship has to offer, from savouring the experience of sailing the seas in itself. Find time for yourself on our longest cruise. You'll enjoy 14 whole days at sea, stopping only at Gran Canaria, St. Martin, Curaçao, Aruba and Colón.

Excursions

Ports of call

The ports of call and excursions provide the ideal complement for your cruise. Take part in a carefully designed programme of excursions, all of which are offered in English and Spanish. You can reserve them before your cruise, in which case your tickets will be handed to you on the first day of the yovage. Or maybe you prefer to go at your own pace. On arriving at the port, the local authorities will go through the formalities so that passengers can disembark; this process takes approximately 30 minutes.

Disembarkation procedure for all ships

All disembarkations are organised according to priority levels, with priority passengers and organised groups disembarking first. The priority levels are as follows:

1. THE WAVES Black passengers have disembarkation priority and can disembark whenever they wish. These passengers have a special magnetic card.

2. Those passengers who have booked Pullmantur excursions have priority over other passengers when disembarking at any port. They shall be organised into numbered groups by the excursions and entertainment team and shall be accompanied to the exit in coordination with the dock operator.

Individual passengers who wish to visit a port of call must wait in the public areas on the ship and carefully follow the announcements made via the loudspeaker system, since these guests will be split up according to the number or letter that appears on their Magnetic Card. For safety reasons, passengers are not allowed to wait on the stairs or in entrance-halls or block elevators and emergency exits.

Useful information for the "Baltic Capitals" Cruise Visit St. Petersburg with Pullmantur:

A wide range of daytime and evening excursions can be purchased on board that allow you to fully enjoy this city. All passengers must present their original passport and a photocopy of their passport when disembarking.

For those who wish to disembark at any time:

For this type of traveller, we recommend that you process your individual visa through the Russian Consulate in your country. This will allow you to go beyond the port without restrictions. For information purposes only, this visa can cost around 150 euros and you must request it at least 25 days in advance. We consider this information to be essential. However, we believe that the excursion services we offer on board provide you with the opportunity to enjoy this port of call, whilst avoiding the added cost and bureaucratic procedures.

For those who wish to disembark as part of our Pullmantur excursions: Our on-board staff will process all the necessary disembarkation documents with the Russian immigration authorities without any need for an individual visa.

At the End of the Cruise

Service and Administration Charges

On all our ships, passengers pay an amount under the heading of service and administration charges destined for those staff on board who have served them on a constant and personalised basis throughout their cruise, ensuring that their trip is entirely enjoyable and satisfactory. In order to facilitate this procedure, when you check in upon embarkation your account will be charged with the service and administration fees detailed in each of our published itineraries, alongside other special services that are contracted on board. You can pay these charges in cash or by credit card.

End of the cruise

On the night before disembarking you will be fully occupied recalling all the most exciting moments of your vacation and saying goodbye to the new friends you have made. But don't forget to pack your luggage and leave your suitcase outside your cabin door, which you can collect on the dock upon disembarking. If you have deposited valuable items, please do not forget to remove them from the safe deposit box, as well as settling your extras account
