ENTERTAINMENT ONBOARD

ALL MEALS ON BOARD

Istanbul, Turkey

Slender minarets and lavish Ottoman palaces form the skyline of Istanbul, an unforgettable sight as you approach the city on the busy Bosphorus Strait. Tour Topkapi Palace, marvel at the Blue Mosque, admire ornate Hagia Sofia – and then haggle for spices in the bazaar.

Çanakkale, Turkey

Gateway to the battlefields of Gallipoli and the remnants of ancient Troy, Çanakkale's attractions span thousands of years of history. Visit the archaeological site of Troy, dating back more than 5,000 years, and the hilltop village of Assos, dating back to 530 BC and crowned by a Doric temple to Athena, the sparkling bay of Edremit far below.

Ashdod, Israel

Ashdod is the jumping off point for some of Israel's most iconic sites. Visit the Old City of Jerusalem, a deeply spiritual experience, and continue to Bethlehem, birthplace of Christ. Or head for vibrant Tel Aviv, with miles of shimmering beaches, edgy design and cool neighbourhoods and in contrast, the winding alleys and Arab markets of Old Jaffa.

Kuşadasi, Turkey

This beach resort town is famous for its beautiful marina and its colourful bazaar but principally because of its proximity to the Hellenistic ruins of Ephesus, the ancient city famed for the Temple of Artemis, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.

Limassol, Cyprus

The busy beachfront town of Limassol is the gateway to the once-thriving city-state of Curium, dating to the 2nd century BC, an exquisite Greco-Roman amphitheatre at its heart. Alternatively, the UNESCO-protected archeological site of Paphos, famous for its Roman mosaics, is an easy day trip, as are the forested Troodos mountains.

Port Said & Alexandria, Egypt

The Great Pyramid of Giza, some 4,000 years old, the majestic Sphinx and the vast metropolis of Cairo are all highlights of your day-long adventure between these two Egyptian ports. The tour also includes Cairo's Egyptian Museum, housing priceless jewels and artefacts buried with Tutankhamun and other pharaohs, thousands of years ago.

Volos, Greece

Situated between Athens and Thessaloníki, the elegant port of Volos guards the craggy hinterland of Meteora, where early Christians built monasteries atop sheer pinnacles of sandstone. Visit the UNESCO-listed monasteries and learn about the near-impossible take of constructing these isolated retreats — or spend time in Volos itself, a thriving and cultured city with a beautiful waterfront.

Milos, Greece

Volcanic Milos shows off classic Cycladic beauty: the pretty whitewashed capital, Plaka, spilling over a hilltop, the coastline fringed with wind- and sea-sculpted rock formations, soft sandy beaches and aquamarine coves. Bask on the flat rocks of stunning Sarakiniko Beach or explore 2,000-year-old catacombs.

Santorini, Greece

Sprinkled like sugar over sheer, black volcanic cliffs, Santorini's whitewashed capital, Fira, is a sight to behold. Wander the narrow streets or venture along the clifftop to pretty Oia for that iconic shot of the bluedomed church. Your ship will spend the evening in port, so take a ringside seat in a clifftop bar to watch the fiery sunset.

Mykonos, Greece

A cosmopolitan paradise that attracts more than its fair share of beautiful people, Mykonos Town is the archetypal image of the Cyclades, with immaculate whitewashed houses, windmills and winding alleys. Explore the sandy beaches, wander through the ancient temples on neighbouring Delos and venture out on your overnight stay to enjoy the legendary nightlife.

Rhodes, Greece

A visit to the old city of Rhodes is like stepping back to the time of the Crusades as you stroll the polished cobblestones of the Street of the Knights and explore the medieval Palace of the Grand Masters. Or join an excursion to the acropolis of Lindos, perched high on a hilltop overlooking the sparkling Bay of St Paul.

Heraklion, Greece

The busy capital of Crete is a former Venetian harbour with a history dating back even further, to the time of the Minoans. Visit Knossos, once home to Europe's oldest civilisation and the setting of the legend of Theseus and the Minotaur and delve further into the art and creativity of the Minoans at the city's extraordinary Archaeological Museum.

Patmos, Greece

Many believe the exiled Saint John the Evangelist wrote the Book of Revelation in a mountainside grotto on this beautiful island, which is fringed with pebbly beaches and limpid bays. Visit the hilltop monastery founded in his honour in 1088, but don't miss the chic little port town of Skala, packed with stylish shops and cafés.

INCLUDED TOURS

Ancient Ephesus through the Ages - Hellenistic/Roman

Visit the archaeological site of ancient Ephesus, one of the largest open air museums in the world. See incredible relics of the Hellenistic, Roman and early Christian eras. Discover the Agora, the Odeon, the Library of Celsus and the beautifully preserved marble-paved main Street of Kouretes.

Spectacular Oia Village

Head up the black, volcanic cliff face of Santorini and drive to Oia, perched on the very edge of the caldera. This beautiful little town has stylish shops and restaurants and arguably the best views of Santorini, not least the island's famous whitewashed churches with their sky-blue domes, the Aegean glittering far below.

Medieval tour - Acropolis of Lindos and the Citadel of the Knights

Our tour begins with the Acropolis of Lindos, 55 km (40 miles) from the city of Rhodes, to see the graceful Temple of Athena, built in 300 B.C. Back in the old city of Rhodes, you will walk through D'Amboise Gate and along the perfectly preserved Street of the Knights to discover the medieval residence of each order of the Knights of St John, still bearing the original crests.

Minoan Palace of Knossos

The ancient city of Knossos, one of the most famous archaeological sites in the whole Aegean, provides a fascinating insight into the sophisticated Minoan civilisation. See the Throne Room, the fresco of the Prince of the Lilies, the imposing Grand Staircase and the Queen's Megaron. The tour also includes stop in Heraklion for a short walk through the historic centre before returning to the vessel.

Bosphorus cruise from Europe to Asia

Istanbul is the only city in the world that spans two continents. Sail along the Bosphorus, which divides Europe from Asia. On the Asian side, you will visit the Sultans' summer residence, Beylerbeyi Palace, the Castle of Anatolia and the magnificent Kanlica Villa, ending your excursion back in Europe at the labyrinthine treasure trove of the Grand Bazaar.

Classical Cairo

Disembark in Alexandria and cross the desert to Cairo to admire the only remaining intact Wonder of the Ancient World, the Pyramids of Giza. Continue down the valley to gaze at the guardian of this mortuary complex, the mighty Sphinx. After lunch, visit the National Archaeological Museum and acquaint yourself with the treasures of ancient Egypt, spanning a period of over 50 centuries, before re-joining the ship in Port Said.

PRE-BOOKABLE TOURS

Delos - Sacred island & Apollo Sanctuary

Tranquil, uninhabited Delos, a short boat journey from Mykonos, is believed to be the birthplace of the Greek gods Apollo and Artemis. Admire the three Temples of Apollo, the Temple of the Twelve Gods and enjoy the spectacular views of the Avenue of Lions. The excursion comes to an end with free time back in Chora, the pretty capital of Mykonos.

Religious visit to St John's Monastery - Grotto of Apocalypse

Sleepy Patmos is where St John is said to have written the Book of Revelation around 95 AD. This excursion takes you on a historical journey to visit the Cave of the Apocalypse and the hilltop Monastery of Saint John the Theologian, both declared World Heritage Sites by UNESCO in 1999.

Ottoman Empire and Byzantine Legacy Tour

A full day to visit the most iconic sights of Istanbul. Highlights include the Blue Mosque, arguably the most beautiful in the city; exquisite museum of Hagia Sophia, and the elaborate Topkapi Palace, an UNESCO World Heritage Site. The last stop will be at the famous Grand Bazaar, where you can put your bargaining skills to the test

The spectacular rocks and the "hanging" Monasteries of Meteora

An unforgettable excursion from Volos to see one of Greece's most extraordinary sights, Meteora, where six monasteries perch on top of sheer-sided rock stacks towering over a beautiful valley. You'll visit two of the monasteries, both still occupied, and see the monks' sparse way of life.

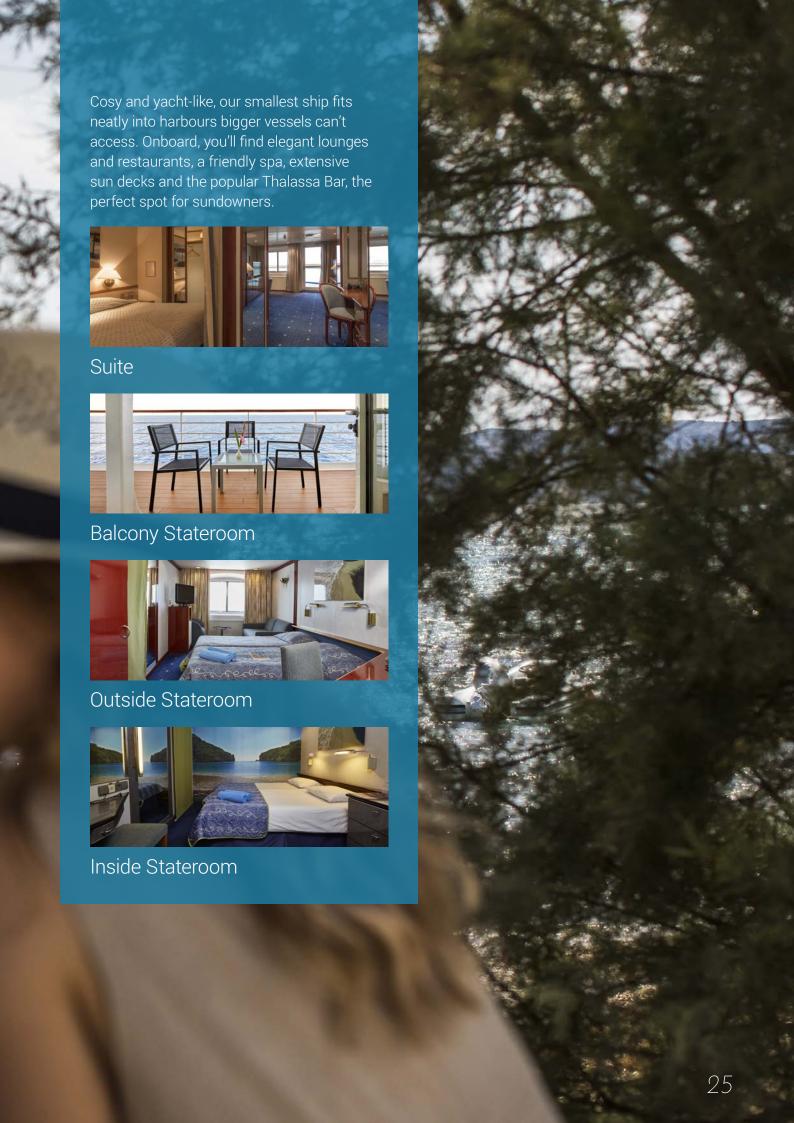

Jerusalem & Bethlehem

A full day from the port of Ashdod will take you to the holy city of Jerusalem where you will visit the Mount of Olives, the Church of Gethsemane and in the old city, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and the Wailing Wall. The tour also includes a visit to Bethlehem, birthplace of Christ.

Curium and the wine village of Omodos

Curium was an important city-kingdom founded by the Greeks in the 14th century BC. Discover the beautifully preserved Greco-Roman theatre, with spectacular views over the sea and the House of Efstolios, with intricate mosaic floors from the 5th century AD. Next, it's into the hills to the wine-growing village of Omodos to visit the Monastery of the Holy Cross in the village square, see a medieval wine press and enjoy a tasting at a local winery in Limassol.
