hello.

Whenever we welcome our passengers on board, we always start with a smile and a simple 'hi'. At Pullmantur we're just like you, which is why we know you like nothing more than enjoying your holiday without having to worry about a thing, whilst making the most of the very best All Inclusive. We also know that for you, eating is about much more than just food, it's a journey of experiences, discovery, pleasure, sharing and so many more things that turn something good into something extraordinary. And finally, we know that our passengers join us on our cruises because they love the sea and the experience of sailing. Perhaps that's why only our crew has been awarded the Excellence Award for Best Crew for 10 years running.

Sail with all five senses.

At Pullmantur, we cruise as we live life, to the very fullest. It's the only way we know. Personal, at a leisurely pace and without limits. We're not only experts on the seas, but also on our guests. That's why we speak their language, offering them the very best food and making sure our All Inclusive is exactly that.

Food.	Drinks.	Music.	Shows.	Sports.	Once the sun goes down.	Children.	Flights.	The Waves.	Check-in.
We turn good things into extraordinary things. When we talk about food, what we really mean is a culinary adventure for the senses. We like to eat well and for us meal times are an important part of our guests' holidays.	We also like to share moments over a drink, be it a coffee, fruit juice, herbal tea, soft drink or cocktail. Whatever you fancy and with only top brands.	Music is a big part of life, but it's even more enjoyable when it's live and you get to listen to it whilst looking out over the sea and seeing the moon reflecting off it. Sounds good?	Laughter, tears, excitement, emotions, feelings... Getting lost in time and not being able to take your eyes off what is happening for a single second. All this is and much more is possible on board.	When we're on holiday, we like to feel good. So don't miss the opportunity to go for a run on the running track while taking in the spectacular views, lift some weights in the gym or sign up to yoga or fitness classes.	We like to live life to the very fullest, night and day. Try your luck in a game of roulette or blackjack and then dance the night away to the rhythm of our DJ at the disco.	As soon as they're on board, our youngest guests become Trotanautas and have the time of their lives thanks to our fantastic programme of activities, whilst the adults in the family do their thing.	Does your cruise depart from a port outside of Spain? Don't worry, we offer flights and transfers to the ship and take your luggage to your cabin*. If your cruise doesn't include flights, we'll help you find the best option for getting to the port.	A cruise is much more than just a boat trip. If you opt to stay in a suite, you'll have access to our premium service, The Waves, and get even more benefits for maximum well-being on board.	If you can't wait get on board and see all this for yourself, check in online at pullmantur.es and avoid the queues.

*Ask about availability.

The very best food, also included.

For us, eating is about much more than just sitting down at a table. It is an experience, a treat for the 5 senses and a chance to indulge our passion for food.

Using ingredients carefully sourced from the sea, mountains, countryside and olive groves, we like to experiment and be creative with our dishes, showcasing the best Spanish and international cuisine has to offer.

To ensure you get the very culinary experience on board, we have created the Pullmantur Gastrolab, an innovative initiative based on experience and passion, which will see world-class chefs work hand-in-hand with Pullmantur's chefs. Together they'll create dishes using nothing but the very best ingredients, ensuring eating on board is a truly extraordinary experience.

And who better to help us lead this initiative than 3-star Michelin chef Jordi Cruz, whose passion to offer outstanding dishes only gets bigger with each challenge he takes on.

Welcome to the Pullmantur Gastrolab.

Spectacular à la carte and buffet options.

From breakfast through to dinner, you'll be able to choose from a fantastic range of mouth watering Mediterranean dishes.

And in between meals.

We like a good snack, which is why the Brasa Grill offers delicious options for adults and kids throughout the day on all our ships.

But that's not all.

We also offer exclusive dishes designed to ensure our guests don't have to leave their healthy lifestyle at home, as well as mouth watering vegetarian dishes.

Let's not forget about the kids!

Our young guests are in for a real treat - a buffet with all their favourite food, carefully prepared using only the best ingredients, meaning it's not just delicious, but healthy too.

Recipe (serves 5): Pork cheek cooked in red wine with potato purée and green beans:

INGREDIENTS:

1 kg of pork cheek • 250 g of onion (diced) • 200 g of carrots (diced) • 100 g of celery (diced) • 125 g of leek (diced) ½ bay leaf • 2.5 g of white peppercorns • 0.9 litres of red wine • 0.25 litres of beef stock • Cornflour • Salt • Ground black pepper • 100 g of green beans sautéed in olive oil • ½ kg of potatoes

METHOD:

- Season the beef cheek with salt and pepper.
- Place it in a frying pan and add the cold red wine, onion, carrots, celery and leek.
- Bring to the boil and add the bay leaf and white pepper, then simmer on a low heat until the beef cheek is tender.
- Set aside the beef cheek and cover.
- Add the beef cheek to the cooking liquid and reduce until it has a sweet taste.
- If necessary, add a little cornflour to thicken the sauce.
- Pass the sauce through a sieve and reheat the beef cheek.
- Serve with sautéed green beans and potato puree.

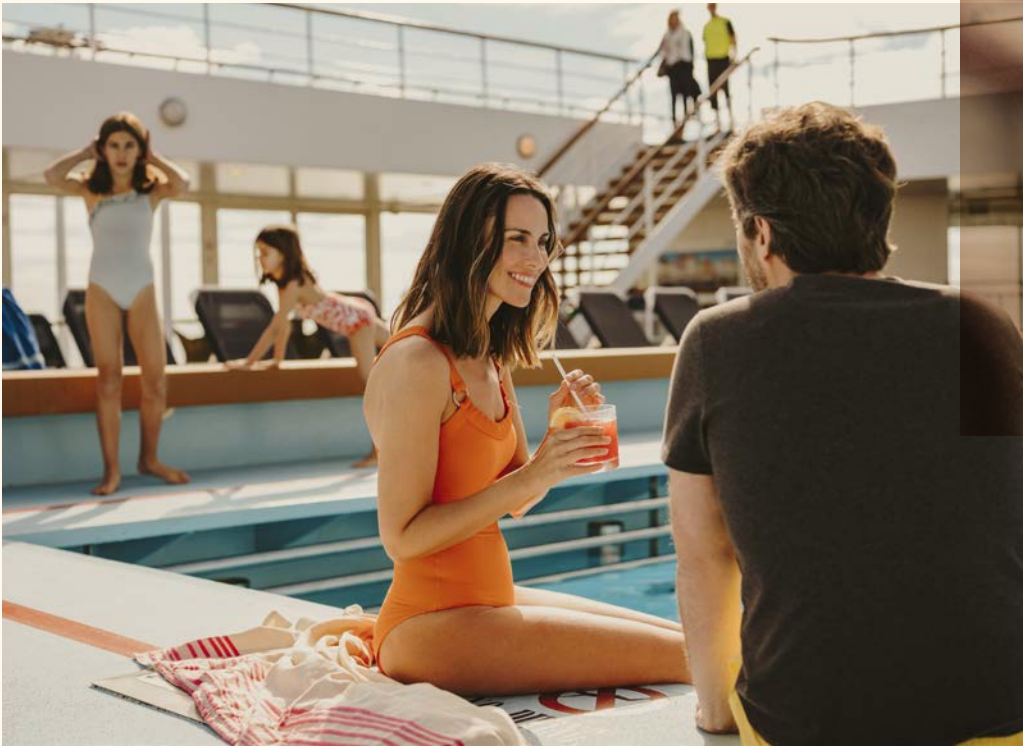

And of course, drinks as well.

We like to celebrate each moment and on our cruises, you can do just that with a glass of wine, beer, spirits, cocktails, fruit juice, soft drinks and much more. If you can't treat yourself when you're on holiday, when can you?

What's more, you can have any drink you fancy, well not any, only top brands, whenever and wherever you want. Order whatever you feel like. An ice-cold beer before your meal? A cocktail to sip over after-dinner conversation? A gin and tonic whilst watching the sunset?

By the way, did we mention that we only serve top brands and that all drinks are included on all our ships and itineraries, all year? round?*

*In addition to our All Inclusive, we also offer Premium Drinks Packages, which include a wide range of brands. For more information, go to pullmantur.es or ask your travel agent.

Everything you like, at sea.

We like living each moment to the fullest and getting the very most out of every minute, although sometimes we also like taking it easy by lying back in a hammock under the sun or going for a run on the ship's track and taking in the unbeatable views.

At Pullmantur, we've got everything covered so the only thing you have to do is decide what you fancy doing.

Well-being.

We like to enjoy a healthy lifestyle, even when we're on holiday. On board our ships, you can do a variety of sports, as well as take part in activities run by professional instructors: running, yoga, zumba, mindfulness...

Have fun...

If you like music, then head to one of our live concerts. If that's not enough, dance your heart out at a salsa, rock & roll or tango class, or if you're a bit of a party animal, then show what you're made of at our Golden Twenties or Back to the Eighties parties.

Go with the flow.

Sometimes, we like enjoying something as simple as lying back in a hammock and doing absolutely nothing, savouring a delicious coffee or taking in the sunset from a deck designed to guarantee silence or whilst listening to live music. You decide.

Learn.

For those of you with an inquisitive mind, head to El Atelier, an exclusive on-board area where you can unleash your creative side through different arts and crafts workshops, and learn patchwork, lettering, basketwork and much more. Release your inner artist!

Share.

Sharing is part of who we are. When we're on holiday, we enjoy spending time with our nearest and dearest, as well as meeting new people, whether at the Captain's Welcome Party, Friends Dating or the competitions we organise on board, amongst many other surprises.

And live intensely.

When we're on holiday, we like to try new things and enjoy new experiences. Have you always wanted to take part in an Escape Room, Mystery Dinner or Immersive Cinema? Well you're in luck!

When on board, our youngest passengers become Trotanautas.

'We are Trotanautas' is much more than just a children's entertainment programme. It's an adventure that is part of our All Inclusive package, giving kids the chance to play, experiment, discover, go on adventures, learn, make new friends and much more. Both kids and adults get to do what they most like doing whilst on board.

Our ships have everything necessary for the youngest members of the family (up to 11 years old) to have a fantastic time as Trotanautas and enjoy the surprises our TrotaCoaches have in store for them.

My name is Dr Pull. The Trotanautas and I need you to jump aboard the 'Ship of a Thousand Bubbles' for an unforgettable week-long adventure.

Are you ready? You can collect your Trotanauta passport on board and get it stamped on all our missions until the final victory.

Missions.

Pay attention to the announcements made by Dr Pull because each day, you'll have a fun mission to complete with the other Trotanautas.

Activities.

Learn how to make slime like Mercury and play instruments like Sol, to name just a few of the many activities we've got in store for you.

Family Challenges.

These are a favourite amongst our Trotanautas, where you get to compete with other families on the ship! Sounds like fun?

Trotaparties.

As soon as you're on board, you'll become a Trotanauta and when you complete a mission, there'll be a victory party. What's more, Trotanautas get their own GALA night!

Trotaevening.

Spend an unforgettable night camping* with other Trotanautas on the 'Ship of a Thousand Bubbles'.

New experiences.

Learn how to make cupcakes* with the ship's chefs and get involved in magic workshops*.

Toddlers are also in for a treat!

Kids under 3 years old also get to take part in fantastic activities with their families. What are you waiting for?

* These activities are subject to an extra charge.

As you're no longer a kid, we've put together something.

So if you're between 12 and 17 years old, head to THE FACTORY and forget about being bored during your cruise. This is a real and virtual space where you make your own fun in your own way, with the help of our Co-workers.

At The Factory,
you create the rules.

You'll get to do team activities in the virtual and real world, but whatever you do it's you who decides. So why not play table tennis, sing your heart out at the karaoke or try your hand at darts? There'll also be a competition to select the winning team at the Final Party.

08:30 09:30 11:00 13:45 15:30 17:30 20:00 21:30 23:00 00:00

Today, when I opened my eyes, the first thing I saw was the sun rising over the open sea. That's when I decided I'd go for a run on the ship's upper deck before breakfast. I lay in bed for another five minutes just to admire the views and then got up.

I love the taste of coffee. It's Juan Valdez. Yesterday I had toast with tomato and olive oil for breakfast, but today I went for the eggs and bacon.

Everyone did their own thing - the youngest went off with his Trotanautas friends, the eldest had a challenge at The Factory and we went on an excursion and swam with dolphins.

Just before lunch, I couldn't decide whether to have an ice-cold beer or a Bloody Mary. It's a difficult life! We then had a mouth watering paella with a bottle of white wine at the Restaurante Atlántico. I could have been in Valencia, it was that good.

Instead of going for a siesta, I went to have a look around the Village Shopping Center. I've already seen a few things I wouldn't mind getting.

Whilst the hubby went to play padel, I went off to the Spa del Mar and got a facial to make sure I was looking my best for the gala dinner.

Before getting ready, I took a moment to relax in the cabin and send a few WhatsApp messages to friends, as well as share photos with them to really rub it in.

Our waiter is called Francisco. Yesterday, for my main course he recommended the hake served in pepper sauce, which was absolutely delicious. Today, I fancied a meat dish, so I ordered the suckling pig confit.

After seeing a show which could have given Broadway a run for its money, we went to the Casino Marbella. It was my first time playing roulette and we only ended up winning!

To finish up, we danced the night away to the rhythm of the DJ. It looks like going to bed early around here is mission impossible. Oh well, tomorrow will be another day... and no doubt even better than today.

Our fleet.

Each one of our ships has a unique feel.

They might not be the biggest in the world, but then again, if they were, they wouldn't be so cosy. Also, we wouldn't be able to offer the personalised service that characterises us or have the experience we have accrued over years of sailing. And our passengers like us just the way we are - honest, personal and, above all, unmistakably Spanish.

But it's what is inside our boats that makes them truly special. No, we're not talking about their restaurants, terraces or swimming pools. Or about their discos, casinos, libraries, spas or shops. This is something else.

Perhaps you can only really understand what we're talking about by joining us aboard one of our four ships. Get lost in them and let their award-winning crew take care of you. Discover their secrets, immerse yourself in a world of well-being and see how the heart and soul of our ships make everything possible. Then and only then will you discover what truly makes them unique.

Sovereign

Sovereign, like a queen. That's exactly what she is when at sea. Sailing around the Mediterranean on board this ship a truly unique experience. If to this we add 14 decks, a theatre, paddle court, running track, spa, restaurants, cafes, bars and your presence, no words can really do this majestic ship justice.

Monarch

Our biggest ship to date. This giant of the seas welcomes 2,766 passengers on board for the time of their lives. The Monarch boasts 14 decks with everything from a basketball court, casino, disco and swimming pools to terraces, a beauty salon, gym and theatre. Get ready to be blown away. Now imagine being on board, sailing around the Caribbean, through the Norwegian fjords or around Iceland.

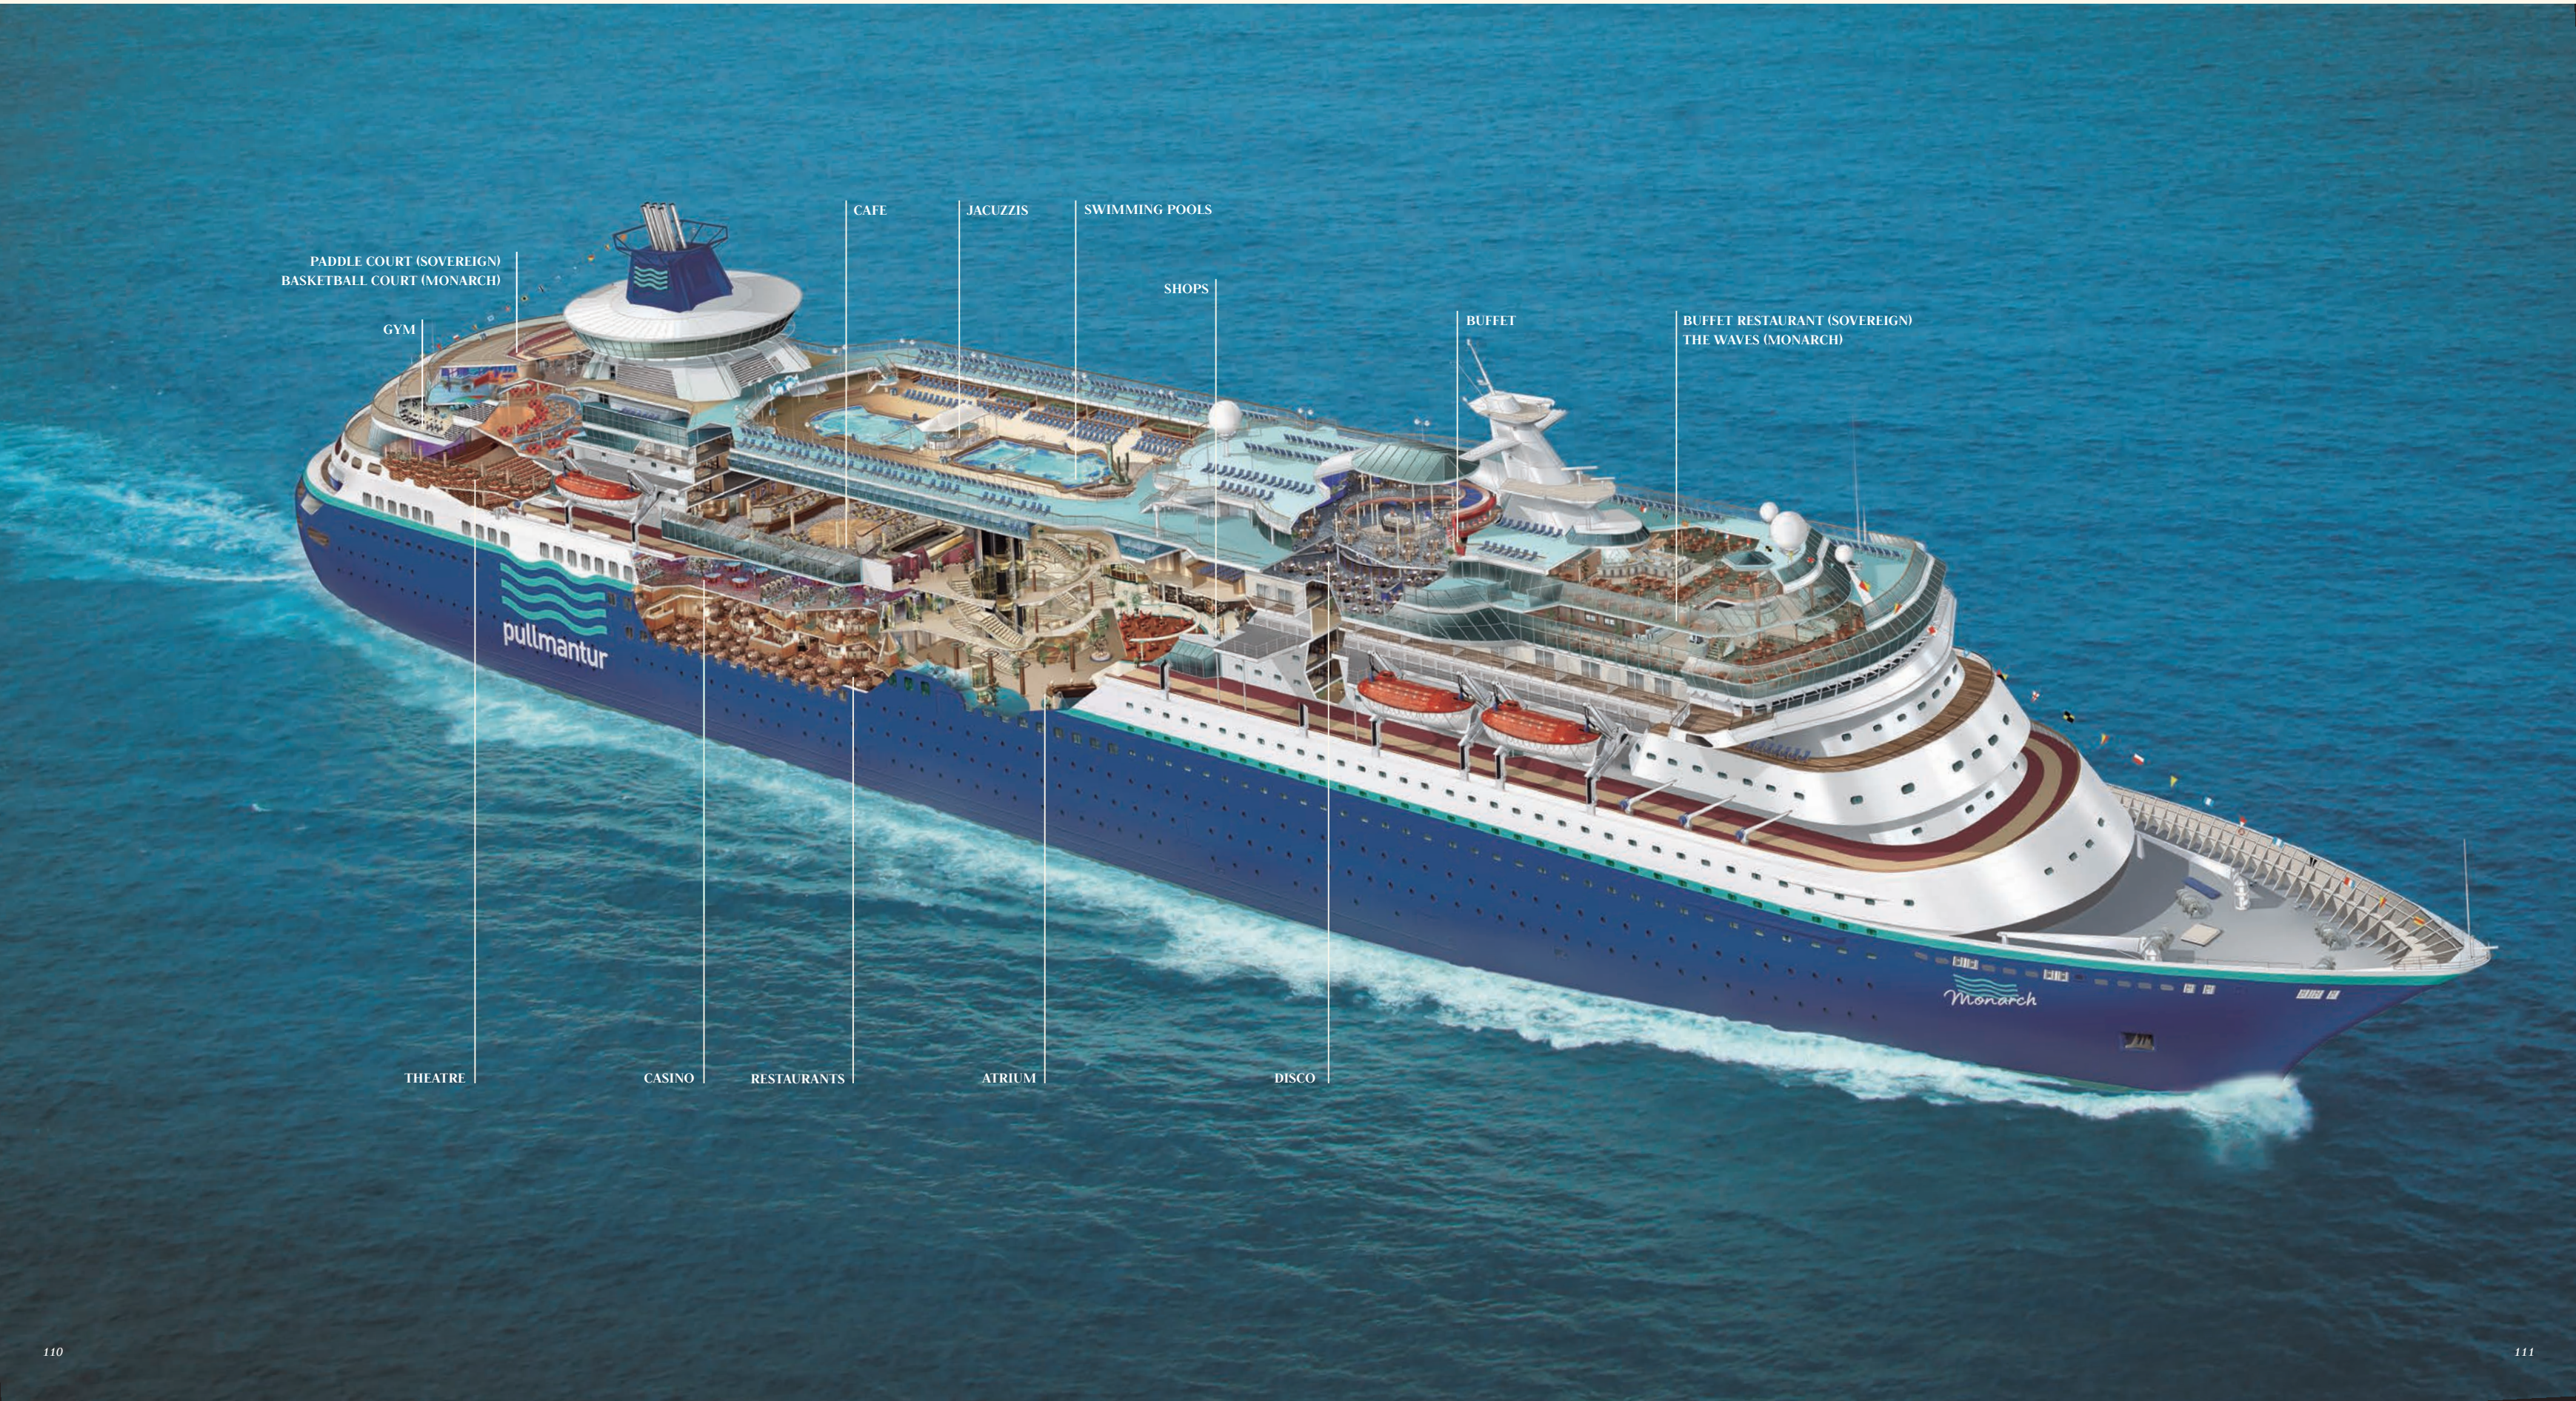

Horizon

One of the jewels of our fleet, this ship, which sails to the United Arab Emirates on the Dubai and Legends of Arabia itinerary, stands out for its attention to detail. On board the Horizon, passengers are treated to outstanding features spread across 9 decks, which include a buffet, bars, cafes, theatre, spa, casino, gym and library, to name just a few. What's more, an impressive programme of activities ensures guests have an unforgettable experience with us at sea.

Zenith

More than just a ship, this is a place where dreams come true. Pullmantur has a real treat in store for its 1,828 passengers - the chance to sail with us in November and December 2019 to the Canary Islands and Madeira, and discover the Secret Places of the Mediterranean. Its 9 decks boast restaurants and cafes, as well as a spa, gym, swimming pools, jacuzzis, shops and much more.

We'll be visiting countries where Spanish citizens (including children and babies) require a passport. Don't forget to check your documents, as well as make sure your passports are in date and have the minimum period of time left on them. If you are not Spanish, check the requirements for the countries we are going to be visiting.

During your cruise.

What should I do with my luggage?

Upon arrival at the port, we will take your luggage and deliver it to your cabin for you. Don't forget to put an identification tag on each piece of luggage and keep any medicine, jewellery and valuable items with you. Before travelling, please check the list of items which are prohibited on board (Section 11.5, Safety Rules, of the General Terms and Conditions). If you attempt to embark with one of the items on this list, it will be taken off you for your own safety and returned to you when you disembark.

Where should I go when I get to the ship?

During embarkation, our staff will be waiting for you at the port to help you with everything you need to do. Once on board and during the entire cruise, we are here to help you in any way we can.

Do I need cash on board?

No, you don't. On the day of embarkation, when you're checking in at the port terminal, you'll be required to open a credit account linked to your credit or debit card. We'll then give you a card which you can use to pay for all extras on board. That way, you won't have to carry cash or cards around with you. Any purchases you make on board will be automatically charged to your account.

If you link your account to a credit card, you'll also save time when checking out on the day of disembarkation, as you won't need to go to reception to settle your account.

Do I have to open an account on board?

Yes, we do require you to open an account. We accept all MasterCard, Visa and American Express credit cards, as well as Visa Electron, Maestro, Diners and MasterCard 4B debit cards.

Welcome Talk

To help you get acquainted with the programme and activities on offer right from the word go, on the very first day of the cruise, we will give a welcome talk. We'll go through the services offered on board and you'll have a chance to meet some of the crew, who will go out of their way to make sure you enjoy your cruise.

Is there a dress code on board?

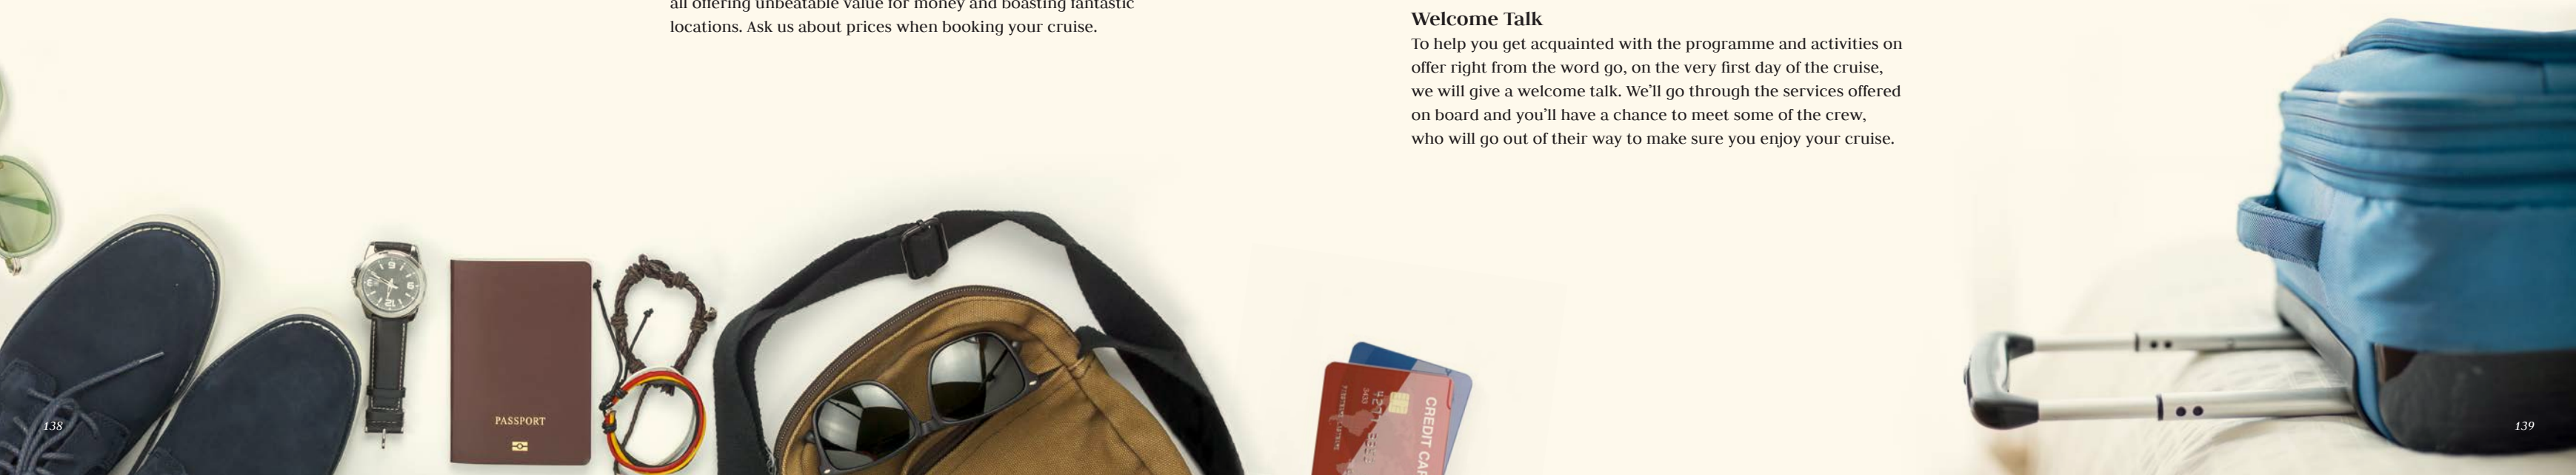

We encourage you to dress appropriately for special events, such as the Captain's Cocktail Party, as well as the theme nights (White Night and Tropical Night). We would ask you to refrain from wearing shorts for dinner at the restaurants. Swimming attire is not permitted in any of the indoor restaurants for any of the meals. Sports shoes are a good option and we recommend you bring a pair of trainers and sports wear with you if you're planning on doing sports on board.

How should I behave on board?

In your cabin and on pullmantur.es, you will find the list of services, which includes the on-board guest conduct policy. All passengers should read and abide by this during their stay. If passengers fail to follow the guest conduct policy, this may result in the ship's Captain ordering they be disembarked, in addition to any other measures being taken which are deemed necessary to ensure the policy is observed, this being without prejudice to all consequences which arise as a result of this failure.

Can I smoke on board?

Smoking is strictly forbidden in the cabins, on the balconies, inside the ship, in the lifts and when the ship is being refuelled (this being announced over the PA system). E-cigarettes are not allowed on board. Our ships have specific smoking areas, located on their outdoor decks. Nevertheless, we ask you to take all necessary precautions to minimise the risk of fire. Please also use the ashtrays provided.

Important information.

During your cruise.

On-board Newspaper

Each night, we'll leave the on-board newspaper in your cabin. Here, you'll find information on the port we'll be calling at the following day, times for meals, on-board activities, the evening entertainment programme and any changes to the times on the itinerary. We encourage you to read it to find out about all the fantastic opportunities we offer you on board.

Bars and Restaurants

All our ships have a range of bars on board. Each one has its own unique feel and they are the perfect place to enjoy yourself and meet other passengers.

All meals on board, with the exception of those served by room service and at the Wú restaurant (Sovereign), are included in the price of the cruise. You may have breakfast and lunch at the main restaurant whenever you wish, whilst for dinner an à la carte menu is served in two allocated sittings. The dinner sitting you have been assigned will be printed on your Pullmantur card. The buffet will be open for breakfast, lunch, evening snacks and dinner, and you're free to sit wherever you want.

Library

The ship's library offers a wide selection of books for you to read during your cruise. Its opening times can be found in the on-board newspaper.

Laundry and Ironing Service

We offer an on-board laundry and ironing service with very reasonable prices. If you opt for this service, your cabin assistant will collect your clothes and return them washed and ironed to your cabin the following day. Same-day services are available upon request (additional charges apply).

Plugs

For your convenience, all our cabins are equipped with 220v and 110v plugs. Please make sure you unplug all your electronic equipment when leaving your cabin. For safety reasons, the use of irons in cabins is prohibited.

Medical Service

For your safety, there will always be a resident doctor and nursing staff on board. They will be available during normal surgery hours and on call at all times to deal with emergencies. This service is not included in the price of the cruise. Don't forget that we offer medical insurance for just €25.

Excursions.

Ports of Call.

Excursions at the ship's ports of call are the ideal way to get even more out of your cruise. We've put together an impressive selection of excursions, all offered in Spanish and English. To book your place, go to pullmantur.es and your excursion tickets will be given to you on the first day of your cruise. However, feel free to do your own thing at the destinations we visit if you prefer. Upon arrival at the port, the local authorities will carry out the necessary checks for passengers to be able to disembark. This process takes around 30 minutes. Remember to embark before the time indicated on board.

Procedure for Leaving the Ship at a Port (Applicable to all Ships).

Passengers must leave the ship in order of priority with priority passengers and organised groups leaving first. The order of priority is:

1. THE WAVES Black passengers have priority when leaving the ship and may disembark whenever they wish. These passengers have a special magnetic card.
2. Passengers who have booked excursions with Pullmantur Cruises have priority over other passengers when leaving the ship at any port. These passengers will be organised into groups numbered by the excursions and entertainment team and will be accompanied to the exit, in coordination with the dock operator.

3. Individual passengers who wish to leave the ship must wait in the public areas on board and carefully follow the announcements made over the PA system, as these passengers will be organised based on the number or letter on their magnetic card. For safety reasons, passengers must not wait on stairways or in passageways, or block lifts and emergency exits.

Useful Information for the Baltic Capitals Cruise

Discover Saint Petersburg with Pullmantur Cruises:

A wide range of daytime and night-time excursions are available for purchase on board, allowing passengers to really explore the 'Venice of the North'. When disembarking, all passengers must show their passport and provide a photocopy of it.

Passengers who wish to get off the ship at any time of the day:

In this case, we recommend applying for an individual visa at the Russian Consulate in Spain, which will allow you to leave the port without any restrictions. This visa costs approximately €150 (although this may vary) and should be applied for at least 25 days before you travel. Although it is important we provide you with this information, we do think that the excursions we offer allow passengers to make the most of the city and you therefore may prefer to avoid the added expense and inconvenience of applying for a visa.

For passengers who would like to disembark the ship to join us on our excursions, our on-board staff will handle the documents required by Russian immigration authorities for you to be able to leave the ship, without the need for an individual visa.

At the end of the cruise.

The night before disembarking, you're sure to be busy remembering what an unforgettable holiday you've had, as well as saying goodbye to all the new friends you've made. However, please don't forget to pack your suitcases and leave them by the door of your cabin. You'll get them back on the quay as you disembark. Also, remember to remove any valuable items from your cabin's safe, as well as settle your credit account if you opened it using cash.

Furthermore, in such an event, the Main Contracting Party shall represent the beneficiaries and be liable for ensuring they fulfil all contractual obligations specified in the Conduct Policy on their behalf. 5.3 Refunds. All refunds due for any reason shall be made by the same means of payment used to pay for the tour. 5.4 On-board payments. On the first day of the Cruise, all Passengers must open a credit account linked to their credit/debit card or pay a cash deposit of 200 euros/USD (two hundred).

6. CANCELLATION OF THE TOUR BY THE ORGANISER PRIOR TO DEPARTURE

In the event of the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, cancelling the Contract due to reasons which are of no fault of the Passenger, they must refund the Passenger for all amounts they have paid, doing this within a maximum period of 14 calendar days from the termination date of the contract. The agency shall not be liable for paying any additional compensation to the Passenger if said cancellation is due to:
a) The number of individuals booked on the package tour being less than the minimum number specified in the Contract and the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, informs the Passenger of the cancellation within the period established for this in the Contract, i.e. at least:
• 20 days before the beginning of the tour for those lasting more than 6 days.
• 7 days before the beginning of the tour for those lasting between 2 to 6 days.
• 48 hours before the beginning of the tour for those lasting less than 2 days.
b) The Organiser being unable to fulfil the Contract due to inevitable and extraordinary circumstances and it notifies the Passenger of the cancellation without undue delay before the beginning of the package tour.

7. CANCELLATION BY THE PASSENGER AND TRANSFERS

7.1 Cancellation by the Passenger. With Package Tours, you are not entitled to exercise the right to cancellation laid out in articles 102 et seq. of Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 1/2007, this consisting of the right to cancel requested services for any reason within 14 calendar days from the date on which a Contract is entered into and be entitled to a refund of the total amount paid. The Passenger may terminate the Contract at any time prior to the beginning of the tour, in which case the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall be entitled to require the Passenger to pay a suitable and justifiable penalty. The Contract may specify a reasonable set penalty, this being based on how long before the beginning of the tour the Contract is terminated, as well as on the economic impact said termination has on the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, adjusted in accordance with the savings and revenue resulting from the alternative use of the tour services. If the Contract does not specify a standard penalty, the amount of the termination penalty shall be equivalent to the price of the package tour, adjusted in accordance with the savings and revenue resulting from the alternative use of the tour services. Therefore, in such cases, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall refund all amounts it has received for the package tour, minus the applicable penalty. 7.1.2. However, if there are inevitable and extraordinary circumstances at the destination or in the surrounding area which significantly affect the package tour, the carriage of Passengers to the destination, the Passenger may terminate the Contract before the beginning of the tour. In such cases, the Passenger shall not be required to pay a penalty and shall be entitled to a refund for all payments they have made for the tour. 7.1.3. Said reimbursements or refunds shall be made to the Passenger with the applicable penalty being deducted in the event of section 7.1 above applying, these being made within a maximum period of 14 calendar days following the date on which the Package Tour Contract is terminated. 7.2 Cancellation before the beginning of the tour involving contracts signed in places other than the business premises. In the case of contracts signed in places other than the business premises (this concept being laid out in Article 92.2 of Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 1/2007), the Passenger may cancel the tour they have purchased for any reason and without a penalty being applied. In such cases, the Passenger shall be entitled to a refund for amounts paid relating to the tour within a period of 14 days from the date on which the Contract is signed. 7.3 Transfer of bookings. For all Package Tours, the Passenger, in their role as the Main Contracting Party, or any Beneficiary may transfer their booking at no cost to any individual who fulfils all the conditions specified in the package tour brochure, programme or offer and in the Contract. The Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, must be notified of transfers in a durable medium at least 7 calendar days before the start date of the tour. In such cases, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, may only charge the Passenger for actual costs it has incurred as a result of the transfer.

8. CHANGES TO THE CONTRACT, RIGHT TO A DISCOUNT AND CHANGES.

8.1 Changes to the Contract. The Organising Agency may only change the clauses of the Contract prior to the beginning of the tour if the change is minor and the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, notifies the Passenger of the change in a durable medium and in a clear, understandable and obvious manner. 8.1.2 If, prior to the beginning of the tour, the Organising Agency is forced to make substantial changes to any of the main features of the services relating to the tour or is unable to fulfil any special requirement requested by the Passenger which it has previously accepted, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall notify the Passenger of this in a durable medium, without delay and in a clear, understandable and obvious manner. When notifying the Passenger of such a situation, the following must be specified:
• The substantial change proposed and, if applicable, how it affects the price.
• The reasonable period of time for the Passenger to inform the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, of their decision.
• The fact that if the Passenger fails to notify the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, of their decision within the period indicated for this purpose, this shall be taken to mean they reject the substantial change and, therefore, choose to terminate the Contract without any penalty being applied; and
• The reason for the change proposed and the offer to offer this.
The Passenger may choose to either accept the change proposed or terminate the Contract without any penalty being applied. If the Passenger chooses to terminate the Contract, they may accept an alternative Package Tour if the Organising Agency offers this. This alternative tour must be of equivalent or higher quality, where possible. If the change to the Contract or the alternative tour results in a package tour of lower quality or price, the Passenger shall be entitled to receive a suitable discount on the price. In the event of the Passenger choosing to terminate the Contract without a penalty being applied or not accepting the alternative Package Tour offered, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall refund them for all amounts paid for the tour within a maximum period of fourteen calendar days from the termination date of the contract. To this end, the provisions contained in sections 2 to 6 of Clause 10.2 shall apply.

9. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES ONCE THE TOUR HAS BEGUN

9.1 Duty to communicate any lack of conformity with the Contract. If the Passenger becomes aware of the fact that any of the services included in the package tour are not being provided in accordance with the Contract, the Passenger must inform the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, of such lack of conformity without undue delay, taking into account the circumstances of the specific situation.

9.2 Rectification of any lack of conformity with the Contract and non-provision of a significant part of the package tour services contained in the Contract. If any of the services included in the package tour are not provided in accordance with the Contract, the Organising Agency and, where applicable, the Retail Agency, must rectify the lack of conformity, except in the event of this being impossible or entailing a disproportionate cost, taking into account the seriousness of the lack of conformity and the value of the package tour services affected. In the event of a lack of conformity not being rectified, provisions contained in Clause 10.2 shall apply. 9.2.1 In the event of the exception above or of a lack of conformity not being rectified within a reasonable period of time established by the Passenger, the Organiser or Retailer refuses to rectify it, or it requires an immediate solution, the Passenger may rectify it themselves and request a refund for all expenses incurred. 9.2.3 If a significant part of the tour services is unable to be provided in accordance with the provisions of the Contract, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall offer suitable alternatives at no additional cost to the Passenger, in order to ensure the package tour is able to continue as planned. This provision shall also apply when the Passenger is not returned to the place of departure as agreed.

Where possible, such alternatives must be of equivalent or higher quality. If they are of lower quality, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall apply a discount to the price. Passengers may only reject the alternatives offered if they are not comparable to the services agreed upon as part of the package tour or if the discount to the price is inadequate.

9.2.4 When a lack of conformity significantly affects the package tour and the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, does not rectify said lack of conformity within a reasonable period of time established by the Passenger, the later may terminate the Contract without any penalty being applied and, where applicable, request a discount to the price and compensation for damages caused, in accordance with the provisions contained in Clause 10.2.

9.2.5 If alternative tours are not found or the Passenger rejects any alternatives offered on the basis that they are not comparable to the original package tour or the discount to the price offered is inadequate, the Passenger shall be entitled to a discount to the price and compensation for damages, without the Contract being terminated, in accordance with the provisions contained in Clause 10.2.

9.2.6 In the cases detailed in sections 4 and 5 above, if the Package Tour includes the carriage of Passengers, the Organising Agency and, where applicable, the Retail Agency, must offer to repatriate the Passenger in an equivalent means of transport, without undue delay and at no additional cost.

9.2.7 In the event of the tour being cancelled due to mechanical faults, the Passenger shall be entitled to a full refund for the price of the Cruise or, in the event of the tour being cancelled once it has begun due to said faults, to a partial refund or a refund of the difference between the services which should have been provided and those which were provided. In the event of the Cruise ending early due to mechanical faults, the Passenger may request a refund for the part of the Cruise they have not used. In the event of booking or to their home city/town, this being at the discretion of the company. The Passenger shall be entitled to be provided with accommodation in the event of the cruise ending early due to mechanical faults resulting in disembarkation and an overnight stay in an unscheduled port. The above shall apply without prejudice to the rights of passengers outlined in Clause 10.2.

9.3 Inability to ensure the return carriage of Passengers in accordance with the Contract due to inevitable and extraordinary circumstances. If the return carriage of Passengers is unable to be provided in accordance with the Contract due to inevitable and extraordinary circumstances, the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, shall meet the costs of any necessary accommodation. This accommodation shall be of an equivalent standard where possible and shall be for a maximum period of three nights per Passenger, except in the event of provisions contained in EU regulations on passenger rights stipulating a different period.

9.3.1 The limitation of costs established in the previous section shall not apply to persons with disabilities or reduced mobility (in accordance with the definition of these terms provided in Clause 12, above) or to those they are travelling with. Nor shall it apply to pregnant women, unaccompanied minors or individuals who require special medical assistance. This provision shall apply provided the Organising Agency or, where applicable, the Retail Agency, has been notified of the specific needs of the aforementioned individuals at least 48 hours prior to the beginning of the tour.

9.4 Duty of Passengers to cooperate in ensuring the normal running of the tour. Passengers must follow all instructions given by the Organising Agency and/or their local representatives which are designed to ensure the package tour is run properly. In addition to rules which are applicable to all users of the services included in the package tour. In particular, Passengers travelling in groups must show due respect to other Passengers and behave in a manner which is conducive to the smooth running of the tour. 9.5 Duty of the agency to provide assistance. The Organising Agency and, where applicable, the Retail Agency, must provide adequate assistance, without undue delay, to Passengers in difficulty, particularly in the event of extraordinary and inevitable circumstances.

9.5.1 Specifically, this assistance must involve:
a) Providing adequate information on healthcare services, local authorities and consular assistance; and
b) Assisting Passengers in contacting home and helping them find alternatives.

9.5.2 If the difficulty is intentional or has been caused by any negligence on the part of the Passenger, the Organising Agency and, where applicable, the Retail Agency, may require them to pay a reasonable charge for such assistance. This charge may not exceed the actual costs incurred by the agency.

10. CONTRACTUAL LIABILITY FOR DEFECTIVE PERFORMANCE AND BREACHES.

10.1 Liability of the Organising Agency and Retail Agency. The Organising Agency and Retail Agency shall be jointly and severally liable to the Passenger for the proper fulfillment of the Package Tour Contract. The agency liable to the Passenger shall be entitled to exercise the right to recovery against the operator responsible for the breach or defective performance of the Contract, in accordance with their respective area of responsibility for the package tour. 10.1.2 The Organising Agency and Retail Agency shall be jointly and severally liable, regardless of whether the services included in the package tour are provided by them, their representatives or other service providers. 10.2 Right to a discount on the price, compensation and limitations. Passengers shall be entitled to receive an adequate discount on the price as a result of any period during which there has been a lack of conformity. Passengers shall be entitled to receive adequate compensation from the Organiser or, where applicable, the Retailer, for any damages suffered as a consequence of a lack of conformity with the Contract. Passengers shall not be entitled to receive compensation for damages if the Organiser or, where applicable, the Retailer, shows that the lack of conformity has been caused by:
a) The fault of the Passenger;
b) The fault of a third party not involved in providing the services purchased, this being considered an unforeseen and inevitable situation; or
c) Inevitable and extraordinary circumstances.

When the services included in the Package Tour Contract are governed by international conventions, the limitations regarding the scope and conditions for the payment of compensation by the service providers which intervene in the tour shall apply to the organising agencies and retail agencies. When the services included in the Package Tour Contract are not governed by international conventions: [i] any compensation which the agency is required to pay for bodily harm or damages caused intentionally or due to negligence may not be contractually limited.

Compensation or discounts to prices issued in accordance with Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 1/2007, as well as the international regulations and conventions detailed in Article 165.5 of said legislative decree, shall be deducted from one other in order to avoid excess compensation being paid.

11. COMPLAINTS AND LEGAL ACTION RESULTING FROM THE CONTRACT
11.1 Complaints. Notwithstanding any legal action Passengers are entitled to take, they may submit written complaints regarding breaches or defective performance of the Contract to the Organising Agency and Retail Agency. The Organising Agency or Retail Agency must respond in writing to such complaints within a maximum period of 30 days. Complaints addressed to Pulimantur must be sent to the Feedback Management system of its Complaints Department, by sending an email to reclamaciones@pulimantur.es or using the online form available at pulimantur.es/reclamaciones. At this stage, the Passenger and Organiser and/or Retailer may request mediation by the relevant authority or any body which exists for this purpose in order to find a solution to the dispute themselves which they both deem to be satisfactory. The Passenger may submit their complaint to the relevant consumer arbitration board. Arbitration may be sought for the dispute if the agency to which the complaint is addressed has previously adhered to the consumer arbitration system (in which case, the agency shall duly inform the Passenger of this) or if the agency, despite not having adhered previously to the consumer arbitration system, accepts the request for arbitration from the Passenger. Complaints involving intoxication, injury or death, or those where there are reasonable indications of a criminal offence having been committed, may not be submitted to consumer arbitration. In the event of a consumer arbitration hearing, the decision reached by the arbitration panel appointed by the consumer arbitration board shall represent a definitive settlement to the dispute and be binding on both parties. If the Organising Agency and/or where applicable, the Retail Agency, adhere to another dispute resolution system or are required to use another system as a result of a specific rule or code of conduct, they shall inform the Passenger of this prior to the signing of the Package Tour Contract. 11.2 Applicable law. This Contract is governed by the provisions agreed upon by the parties, the provisions of these general terms and conditions, regional Spanish laws and Spanish Royal Decree 23/2018, of 28th December, which amends Spanish Royal Legislative Decree 1/2007 in order to transpose Directive (EU) 2015/2302 on package travel and linked travel arrangements, in addition to applicable international legal instruments and in particular the Athens Convention of 13th December 1974, amended by the London Convention of 19th November 1976, the updated text from 5th September 2013 of Regulation [EC] No 392/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23rd April 2009 on the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents, Regulation [EU] No 1177/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24th November 2010 concerning the rights of passengers when travelling by sea and inland waterway, and Regulation [EC] No 2006/2004. Said Contract is also governed by all other applicable national and international legal instruments regarding the individual services which constitute the tourist package. 11.3 Legal action. If the dispute is not submitted to consumer arbitration, the Passenger may take legal action. The right to take legal action resulting from the Package Tour Contract lapses after a period of two years.

11.4 Limitation of responsibility for damages. Compensation resulting from a breach or defective performance of the services included in the package tour shall be limited by provisions contained in Spanish law and applicable international conventions which govern said services, in particular Regulation [EC] No 392/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 April 2009 on the liability of carriers of passengers by sea in the event of accidents, which includes the consolidated text of the Athens Convention of 13th December 1974, and its Protocol of 2002, the London Convention of 19th November 1976, as amended by its Protocol of 1996, and subsequent amendments in force, regarding the limitation of liability for maritime claims.

12. INFORMATION ON SERVICES RELATING TO THE TOUR.

12.1 Excursions. Land excursions and visits are optional and not included in the price of the package tour. Their organisation depends on local providers and, where available, they must be purchased on board, through our website pulimantur.es, or at your Retail Agency.

12.2 Persons with reduced mobility. The Ships have a limited number of cabins equipped to accommodate persons with reduced mobility and not all the areas and facilities of the Ships are accessible or specifically designed for those with reduced mobility. Persons with reduced mobility who have booked a Cruise with a port of embarkation located in a Member State of the European Union, or with a port of embarkation located outside a Member State and a port of disembarkation located in a Member State, are advised that, in accordance with Article 8.4 of Regulation [EU] No 1177/2010, where strictly necessary and under the following conditions: [i] in order to comply with safety requirements established by law [the relevant authorities]; or [ii] where the design of the passenger ship or its construction, such as equipment including devices, ladders, slow coorins or the like, heaters, radiators, etc. They are persons in question impossible to carry out in a safe manner or in a way that is operationally feasible; the Ship may require a person with disabilities or reduced mobility be accompanied by another person who is capable of providing the assistance they require. As regards passenger services pertaining exclusively to the Cruise, such an accompanying person shall be carried free of charge. 12.2.1 Duty of the Passenger to make it known that they are a Person with Reduced Mobility when requesting a booking. When requesting a booking, the Passenger must inform the Organiser of any physical or disabilities, whether physical or mental, they have which mean they require special assistance or care. A person with reduced mobility means any person whose mobility when using transport is reduced as a result of any physical disability (sensory or locomotor, permanent or temporary), intellectual disability or impairment, or any other cause of disability, or as a result of age, and whose situation needs appropriate attention and adaptation to his or her particular needs of the service made available to all passengers.

12.2.2 Pregnant women and babies. The Ship is not equipped to provide assistance to pregnant women or carry out deliveries. Bookings involving passengers who, on the end date of the tour will be 24 or more weeks pregnant, will not be accepted. During embarkation, pregnant Passengers must provide a medical certificate confirming that both the passenger and her baby are in good health. For safety reasons and particularly due to the absence of on-board incubators for the carriage of newborn babies, or any other equipment necessary to provide them with assistance on board, for bookings to be accepted, newborn babies must be at least six months old on the scheduled embarkation date for Cruises which sail for less than 5 (three) days without calling at a port. In the case of transatlantic cruises or those which are scheduled to sail for 3 (three) or more days without calling at a port, infants must be at least 12 (twelve) months old on the scheduled embarkation date in order to be able to travel.

12.4 Safety rules. Passengers must behave in a manner that does not compromise the safety, peace and enjoyment of other Passengers on the Cruise. They must also conduct themselves in accordance with reasonable standards of caution and diligence, comply with all administrative and legal provisions applicable to the tour and observe the Conduct Policy and rules for the consumption of alcohol on board. Passengers are prohibited from boarding the Ship with any merchandise, alcohol, live animals (except certified guide dogs for those with a visual impairment), weapons, ammunition, explosives, or flammable, toxic or hazardous substances, without written consent from the Organiser. Passengers are forbidden from using or bringing on board electrical appliances or other equipment, such as heaters, radiators, slow cookers or the like, heaters, radiators, etc. They are also not permitted to take food from any of the Ship's restaurants to their cabins, except where requested through the 24-hour room service or for proven medical reasons. Taking food and drinks on land which have not been purchased at on-board places designated for this purpose is also completely forbidden. No vehicle whatsoever may be brought on board, regardless of whether it is animal, human, electrically or mechanically drawn, except those used by persons with reduced mobility which are necessary to ensure their autonomy. In the event of these provisions being breached, the equipment found shall remain with the Ship's staff and the Passenger in question shall not be able to use it until the Cruise has ended, at which time the equipment shall be returned to its owner. Passengers shall be liable for damages caused to the Organiser and Ship as a result of any behaviour involving the wilful misconduct, fault or negligence of Passengers.

12.5 Timely return of Passengers to the Ship following calls at ports. The Cruise has itineraries which include calls at various ports that may be made by 18 years of age or those who are minors under the laws of the relevant country travelling without their parents or legal guardians and with any person other than their parents, must also provide written permission from their parents or legal guardians and proof of their relationship. They are also highly advised to carry a document with permission from the relevant body as this may be required by certain authorities, in addition to contact information for their parents in the case of emergency.

12.6 On-board doctor. The Ship has a qualified doctor on board for Passengers who wish or need to request medical assistance during the Cruise. It shall be the Passenger's decision as to whether to request assistance from the on-board doctor and costs relating to it provided by said doctor shall be met by the Passenger. The on-board doctor is a general physician, not a specialist, and the Ship's medical centre is not equipped to the same standards as a land-based hospital, nor is it required to meet such standards. The Ship's medical centre is not designed to provide major or ongoing medical treatment. The Ship carries medical supplies and equipment in accordance with the requirements laid out in the laws of its flag state. Customary charges shall apply for services provided and medical assistance by the Ship's medical centre. Passengers may not pay on board for such services using their health insurance. In the event of a Passenger becoming ill or being injured, they may be disembarked to receive medical treatment if this is considered necessary on medical grounds.

12.9 Membership of CLIA (Cruise Lines International Association). As a member of the Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA), Pulimantur Cruises has adopted the Cruise Industry Passenger Bill of Rights, which may be found on our website, pulimantur.es, or on the website of the CLIA.

13. PASSPORTS, VISAS AND VACCINATIONS

The Organiser and Retailer must provide Passengers with information on the health requirements for their package tour and stay, in addition to the conditions applicable to Passengers regarding passports and visas, including the estimated time for obtaining visas. In this regard, the Organiser and Retailer shall be liable for the accuracy of the information they provide. Passengers must obtain all documents necessary for the tour, including passport, visas and health documents. Passengers shall be liable for all damages arising from the failure to provide such documents and, in particular, all costs involved in having to end their trip and return home. If the Retailer or Organiser accepts a request by the Passenger to handle the visas required for any of the scheduled destinations on the itinerary, it shall be entitled to require the Passenger to pay for the cost of the visa, in addition to handling costs for the process it has to follow at the relevant diplomatic or consular office. In this case, by accepting the aforementioned request, the Retailer or Organiser shall be liable for damages which are its fault.

Regulation [EC] No 261/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 February 2004 lays out the rules for compensation and assistance to Passengers in the event of denied boarding and of cancellation or long delay of flights.

The above regulation only applies to:

The above regulation states that in the event of the cancellation or long delay of a flight, the airline must also pay appropriate compensation to the Passenger, as well as reimburse them for the price of the ticket if the Passenger chooses this option. If the cancellation is due to extraordinary circumstances which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken, the air Carrier performing the flight shall not be required to pay compensation, but must provide appropriate assistance and care to affected Passengers, in addition to reimbursing them for the price of the ticket if they choose this option.
